

Lifeloc FC10 Breathalyser

The Lifeloc FC10 is an Australian Standards certified breathalyser which provides an accurate and reliable measurement of your alcohol level.

This unit uses the same platinum fuel cell technology which is used in the globally recognized Lifeloc range of Police grade breathalysers.

Who uses the Lifeloc FC10?

- Workplaces
- Addiction treatment centres
- Schools
- Law enforcement
- Bars & clubs
- Medical centres
- Employment agencies

Why choose the Lifeloc FC10?

- Certified to Australian Standards AS 3547
- Fast performing
- 3 different testing modes - passive mode option means you can quickly screen test without a mouthpiece
- Power saving auto shutoff
- Sturdy & rugged with a rubber grip to protect the unit from damage
- Consistently accurate

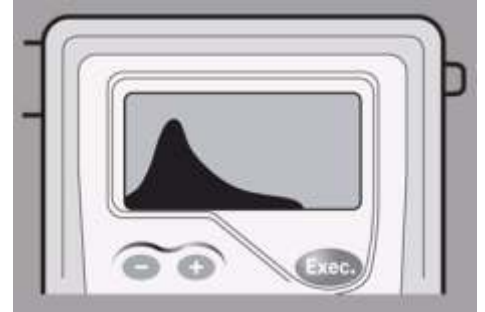

Sober Check - The leader in certified drug & alcohol testing equipment

call 0800 700 777
visit sobercheck.co.nz

Key Benefits

- Double pump sampling for greater accuracy
- Alcohol specific
- Long battery life
- Visual & audible cues to ensure tests are taken properly
- Menu driven software that easily guides the user through the testing process
- Can be used to test open containers
- Immediate response on negative tests, less than 10 seconds response on positive tests
- Consistently accurate across an alcohol range from 000 µg/L to 2000 µg/L

Alcohol Level Graph

Other Options

- FC10 Plus- comes with the same features as the FC10 units, as well as an option of calibration lock-out after a specified number of tests and/or time, completely configurable to your requirements.
- FC20 – comes with the same features as the FC10 Plus as well as the option of keyboard & portable printer, Bluetooth capabilities, DataTrak to download results.

Breath Sample Graph

Service & Support

- Serviced in NZ
- 1 year warranty
- Technical support freephone
- Mouthpieces and accessories available
- Manufactured in USA
- Free product training if required

Here's what one of our satisfied customers say –

The FC10 is a great product and we are happy to promote it – it is certainly my preferred option.

Business Development Manager – Nationwide drug & alcohol testing company.